SUPPORT AT NEWMAN

HEALTH & WELLBEING

This team can meet with your child to talk about how they are feeling and signpost them to emotional and/or academic support. They can share a range of resources, from links to charity websites, NHS approved apps and worksheets. To contact the team email health&wellbeing@cardinalnewman.ac.uk or Paul Bentley-McGhee via Microsoft Teams.

COUNSELLING

We have a team of qualified therapists offering professional talking therapy. Students can get in touch via email counselling@cardinalnewman.ac.uk

STUDY SKILLS

Students can look out for study skills sessions advertised on College News (Teams) throughout the year and subject specific support through Curriculum Plus.

CAREERS

Careers can be found at the entrance to the St Wilfrid's building and can provide information, advice and guidance on all aspects of your child's future plans, including UCAS and apprenticeships. Students will get regular updates via the Careers Microsoft Team notification and can also email the team at careers@cardinalnewman.ac.uk

STUDENT HUB

For a range of student services, including transport and bursary queries, students can visit the Student Hub on the Ground Floor of St Francis.

CHAPLAINCY

Students can find the Chaplaincy Team in the St Bede's building, their office is on the Ground Floor, near Starbucks

ADDITIONAL LEARNING SUPPORT - ALS

Our dedicated and specialist learning support team can support students with specific learning/health needs. Your son/daughter can visit their office in St Bede's (B113). Please ensure you keep them up-to-date with any medical / health conditions.

NEWMAN ACTIVE

Newman Active provide a wide range of social and physical enrichment opportunities. Students can look out for events posted on College News via Microsoft Teams and their college email.
